

YEAR OF BIRTH	1975
YEAR OF CALL	2002
INN	Gray's Inn
CIRCUIT	South Eastern
AWARDS:	2001: Prince of Wales Scholarship – Gray's Inn 1995: Choral Scholarship – Keble College, Oxford
QUALIFICATIONS	2001 - 2002: BPP Law School: BVC (very competent) 1999 - 2000: City University, London: CPE 1995 – 1998 Keble College, Oxford, English

PROFILE

Rebekah prosecutes and defends in all areas of crime.

She is currently a grade 2 prosecutor but has prosecuted a wide range of offences including section 18 GBH, arson, possession with intent to supply Class A drugs, possession of imitation firearms and inciting a child to engage in sexual activity.

Defence cases as junior alone include offences of section 18 GBH, aggravated burglary, sexual assault, arson and blackmail.

Rebekah also has experience in the area of extradition law having undergone a secondment at the CPS Special Crime Division, Extradition Unit and has been instructed in Magistrates' Courts extradition proceedings and appeals against orders for extradition at the High Court.

Rebekah was instructed as prosecution junior in Operation Gestalt, the long running Metropolitan Police investigation into the conduct of HM Customs and Excise during the London City Bond trials and subsequent appeals and during the period of the Butterfield Review.

Rebekah was also instructed as second junior in Operation Theseus, the trial of the three men accused of conspiracy with the 7th July bombers to cause explosions likely to endanger life. Her specific area of responsibility in this complex and sensitive case was disclosure.

NOTABLE CASES

Case name:	Operation Gestalt
Appearance:	Prosecution junior
Category:	Investigation into offences by Customs officers arising out of the investigation and prosecutions of the London City Bond cases.
Detail:	Responsible for reading and summarising vast amounts of material and advising on potential prosecutions in conjunction with Jonathan Laidlaw.

Case name: Operation Theseus
Appearance: Prosecution second junior
Category: Conspiracy to cause explosions
Detail: Trial of three men accused of conspiring with the London bombers.

Case name: R v Sejadi and others
Appearance: Prosecution junior
Category: Kidnap, false imprisonment, s18 GBH, blackmail
Detail: 6 handed kidnap and torture of two men over a drug debt.

Case name: R v Melville and others
Appearance: Defence junior
Category: Conspiracy to commit misconduct in public office
Detail: 5 handed case of defendants charged with obtaining sensitive police intelligence from a corrupt police officer.

Case name: R v Parker
Appearance: Prosecution junior
Category: Robbery
Detail: Multiple counts of armed robbery investigated by the Flying Squad

Case name: R v Cooley
Appearance: Defence junior
Category: Conspiracy to import cannabis
Detail: 5 handed conspiracy to import cannabis on large scale.