Rebecca Malczewski accepts instructions across Chambers' practice areas, with a particular focus on crime, inquests & inquiries and professional discipline.

Rebecca's legal experience includes being a Casework Volunteer for Advocate and an Advice and Information Volunteer for Liberty. She also served as a Helpline Volunteer on Refuge's National Domestic Abuse Helpline and an Independent Custody Visitor for the Police and Crime Commissioner for Warwickshire. Alongside her studies, she was President of the Association of Gray's Inn Students.

Before joining the Bar, Rebecca was as an Associate at an asset management firm.

Rebecca is also a Trustee of St Cuthbert's Society JCR at Durham University.
