

Redmond Traynor

Year of Call: 2019

020 7353 5324

Redmond joined 2 Hare Court in March 2021 following the successful completion of his pupillage. He regularly represents defendants in the Youth Court, Magistrates' Court and Crown Court.

Redmond is particularly interested in matters relating to the Proceeds of Crime Act 2002. During pupillage, he assisted members of Chambers in POCA-related cases. Prior to starting pupillage, Redmond wrote his postgraduate thesis on the assessment of a defendant's "benefit" in drug cases under POCA.

In addition to his criminal practice, Redmond accepts instructions on public law cases. He is part of the Government Legal Department's Junior Junior Scheme and acts pro bono for Bail for Immigration Detainees in applications on behalf of those in immigration detention. Redmond accepts instructions through Advocate (formerly the Bar Pro Bono Unit). He has advised on an application for judicial review of a decision of the Independent Office for Police Conduct and on an appeal under the Protection of Freedoms Act 2012.

Before converting to law, Redmond graduated from the University of Oxford with a degree in Classics. After university, he spent a year living in Iran, learning Persian at the University of Tehran.

Criminal Defence

Redmond represents defendants in the Magistrates' Court and Crown Court. He has defended in cases involving a range of offences including grievous bodily harm, theft, dangerous driving, being concerned in the supply of Class A drugs and escaping from lawful custody. He is instructed in a number of ongoing cases in the Crown Court.

Redmond has a particular interest in defending in the Youth Court. He is familiar with the NRM framework and has represented youths charged under RIPA 2000. He recently secured a non-custodial sentence for a young person charged with his fourth knife offence.
